WAR SUPPLIES REMOVED FROM SHIP, GUARDED

Believe Materials Were
Consigned To Irish
Army.

500 MACHINE GUNS

Search Warrant Issued By
Hoboken Police To Find
Supplies

New York, June 16.—Between 500 and 600 Thompson machine guns and other war materials which were seized on board the freighter East Side in the belief that they were consigned to the Irish republican army, were under a joint guard of policemen and federal customs officers in Hoboken today while the United States authorities made an investigation to try and find out who had purchased the arms, who had shipped them and the identity of the consignee.

The war supplies were taken from the freighter just a short time before she sailed for Norfolk. Her ultimate destination is an Irish port.

The machine guns, together with many varieties of magazines, a case of ammunition and 175 boxes believed to hold small arms are valued at $150,000. The machine guns are known as "Thompson sub-machine guns" and are the latest thing in death dealing machinery, being capable of firing more than 600 shots a minute.

The search warrant upon which the machine guns were seized, had been issued by the Hoboken police. Afterwards a difference of opinion had developed between the Hoboken police and the federal authorities as to the real custodians of the weapons so it was decided at a hearing before Recorder Adolph Charston at Hoboken that the machine guns had been manufactured by the Colt's Patent Firearms Manufacturing Company. The East Side is not listed in Lloyd's register of shipping for 1920. She is said to have been built by the United States shipping board and leased to the cosmopolitan Shipping Company.

Federal officers of the port of New York, said that "certain arms had been detained, pending an investigation" but refused to say if the authorities had any definite information about arms and ammunition being smuggled from this port to Ireland for use by the Sinn Fein. The machine guns had been concealed in sacks that were hidden in the East Side's coal bunkers.

CHINESE WALL THROWN ABOUT SOVIET RUSSIA

U. S. Senator May Be Denied Entrance To Country.

Berlin, June 16.—The "cold shoulder" policy which soviet Russia is adopting toward the United States may prevent U. S. Senator Joseph I. France, of Maryland from carrying out his plan to study Russian conditions at close range.

Senator France's request for passport papers to get into Russia has not been definitely refused, but delay has developed and it was pointed out today that the Moscow soviet has constructed a veritable Chinese wall around the country shutting it off completely from the rest of the world. Already passports have been refused to several other Americans but whether an exception will be made in the case of the senator is not yet apparent.

Senator France denied to the International News Service a report from Riga that the soviet government had refused to allow him to enter Russia. Senator France pointed out that he had come to Berlin from London and had not yet been in Riga. While in London, the senator called upon Leonid Krassin, head of the Russian bolshevik trade mission and asked his assistance in getting into Russia. Later, he decided to come to Berlin and endeavor to get his passport vised by the soviet envoy to Germany. During the interval of waiting, the senator is conferring with persons conversant with industrial conditions in Russia to get a line on the situation.

Should Senator France eventually get the desired permission to enter soviet Russia, he probably will have Germans to thank, in no small measure. The senator is said to be keenly disappointed over the turn affairs have taken but has not yet given up hope of getting into Russia.

The Moscow government has already refused to allow William H. Johnston, president of the International Machinist Union; Herman Bernstein and Lincoln Staffens, to enter Russia. Mr. Johnston has returned to Berlin from Riga, where he was officially informed of the decision of the Russian government.

Politics And Irish Issue Engage A. F. O. L. Meeting

Denver, June 16.—Proposals of a "one big union" in the American Federation of Labor has been made for the first time in the federation's history.

Two resolutions introduced today provide for united action by all crafts affiliated with the federation, which would enable the body to operate in effect as one big union on matters vital to organized labor in general.

One resolution would empower the executive council with the authority to declare a general strike to combat nationwide movements to reduce wages and union standards.

Denver, Colo., June 16.—Politics and the Irish question will keep the American Federation of Labor seething from now on, according to developments today.

The movement to oust Samuel Gompers, for thirty nine years head of the federation, has come to life with a bang. The campaign to elect John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers of America, the largest union in the federation, is now in the open.

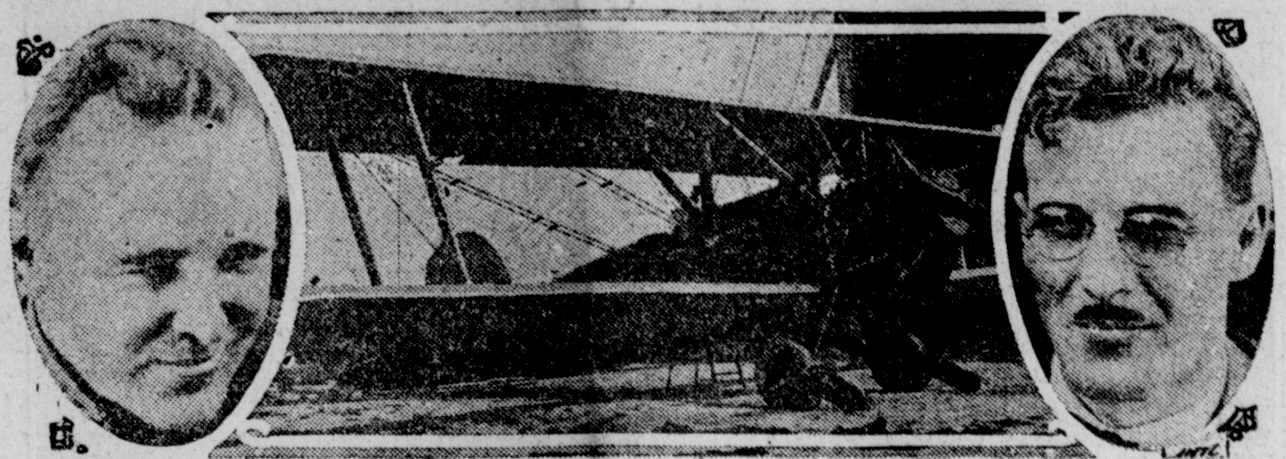

Lewis' supporters are actively at work in his behalf, making known that he is a receptive candidate, and sounding sentiment. They declare their activities and Lewis' silence.

GERMANY PROTESTS AGAINST INACTIVITY OF ALLIED TROOPS IN UPPER SILESIA

Berlin, June 16.—Germany sent a note to the allies today protesting against the inactivity of the allied troops in Upper Silesia. The German government cited the treaty of Versailles as a basis for the protest.

The allied high command in Upper Silesia ordered the British advance against the Polish insurgents halted several days ago on the ground that the German volunteers should retire before the allies continued their operation.

Gen. Hoefler, commander of the German volunteers, has begun to move back his troops and has already withdrawn some of the German outposts according to the word from Oppeln.

Allies Discuss Shares In Indemnity From Germany

Paris, June 16.—A series of compromise conferences were begun at the foreign office today to determine the amount that each of the European powers shall get from the installments of German indemnity already paid. This question was thought to have been settled at Spa, but some of the nations took exceptions to the pro rata shares that were allotted by the supreme council. Delegates representing the finance ministers of all the interested powers are taking part in the conferences.

France, England, Belgium and Italy, are sticking to the percentages allotted to them at Spa, but the small nations that were associated with the big allies during the war, are quarreling over the shares allotted to them. Representatives of the chief allied nations were disposed to lump the residue, after subtracting the sums granted Great Britain, France, Belgium and Italy and some of the little countries were seized with the fear that they were not going to get enough.

Even Czechoslovakia, one of the new countries created out of the old Austria-Hungarian empire is claiming part of the German reparations on the ground she declared war against Germany a few days before the conflict ended.

After the delegates reach agreements on the amounts to be distributed to the little nations, the finance ministers will meet to approve the settlement.

RAILROAD BRIDGE GIVES WAY, 6 COACHES PLUNGE INTO WATER KILLING 4

Chicago and Northwestern Train Meets Disaster Near Crawford, Nebraska, Early Thursday, When Bridge Collapses.

Omaha, Neb., June 16.—Loss of life in the wreck of eastbound Chicago and Northwestern train No. 606, from Lander, Wyo., to Omaha and Chicago, which early today plunged into Cottonwood creek near Crawford, Neb., is not expected to reach more than six.

Early reports of the disaster were found to be exaggerated. The train consisted of a pullman sleeper, chair cars, coaches, a smoker and baggage and express cars. As the train was passing over the Cottonwood creek, swollen by storms, the structure gave way, six of the coaches, it is reported, falling into the stream and becoming partly submerged. Early reports said the engine with the baggage and express cars, passed safely over the bridge. The pullman car, the rear one on the train, remained on the rails, but reports said that in this car twelve were hurt.

One of the chair cars is reported to have landed on top of the smoker. A relief train was sent from Chadron, 30 miles from the wreck scene which is near the Wyoming border.

lision of a work train and freight train on the Logan branch of the Chesapeake and Ohio railway at Stillings, three miles above Logan at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Two heavy freight engines were demolished 16 loaded coal cars derailed and 500 yards of track torn up as the result of the collision.

J. M. Shelton, engineer on the first locomotive on the coal train was cut on the knee, and C. A. Sullivan, engineer on the work train, suffered a knee sprain. All of the members of the engine crews jumped to safety. Patterson, track man, who was riding on the tender of the work train, caught in the crash and so badly injured that he died in a Logan hospital thirty minutes after the collision.

Railway officials here are quoted to the effect that it will require forty-eight hours before traffic can be resumed.

Before 7 a. m. searching parties had recovered four bodies from windows of the passenger coaches. The engine, a smoker, a chair car and one pullman sleeper were reported to have tumbled into the water.

The rescuers, made up chiefly of railroad men rushed to the scene on a relief train from Chadron, Neb., the division terminal, worked frantically in the belief that many men, women and children were imprisoned in the partly submerged coaches.

According to information received here, the fatality occurred shortly after midnight. The train had left Omaha, bound on a branch line for Lander, Wyoming the western terminal of the Chicago and Northwestern road. Telephonic advices from the engine crew stated that part of the train had passed over a bridge spanning the Big Cottonwood creek, when the bridge gave way. The engine crew gave first word of the wreck from a nearby farm house.

JOHN W. PRUGH IS APPOINTED CHIEF OF STATE BUREAU

John W. Prugh, Republican and prominent Xenia business man, was appointed chief state inspector of building and loan associations by Gov. Harry L. Davis late Wednesday afternoon. He succeeds F. E. McGuire of Van Wert.

Mr. Prugh will take office next Monday, June 20, and will have his headquarters in Columbus, where the bureau office is located. The position carries a salary of $5,000 a year, and is considered a responsible position requiring knowledge of building and loan matters.

The appointment of Mr. Prugh followed his unanimous endorsement for the position by the various district organizations comprising the League of Ohio Building and Loan Associations. Mr. Prugh is president of Group No. 2 of this organization.

Mr. Prugh is a prominent and successful real estate man, a business he has followed for a number of years. He has also been actively interested in the Home Building and Savings Company of this city, serving as vice-president of that organization now. He has always been prominent in civic affairs, being a former president of the Xenia Business Men's Association and at the present time a member of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce. He held office in this city for 11 years as a councilman, serving until 1913, but this is the only official capacity in which he has ever served.

Through his connection with the local building and loan, Mr. Prugh has been in close touch with the activities of the state bureau and is believed to be well fitted for the position to which he has been appointed. Although Mr. Prugh will be located in Columbus a greater part of the time, he will not sever his local connections and will continue to maintain his home here.

Stillman, wife of the former president of the National City Bank, was smiling, cheerful and confident when the hearings in her husband's divorce suit were continued today, before, Referee Daniel J. Rockefeller, Mr. Stillman's sister, were called in the indirect attack against the legitimacy of Baby Guy Stillman.

Lawyers for the former banker were in conference during the morning and it was regarded as possible that they might advance their plans to put Dr. Hugh Russell, Buffalo osteopath, on the stand today instead of waiting until tomorrow. Dr. Russell treated Mrs. Stillman at Buffalo and had testified at a previous session that Mrs. Stillman had confessed to him that Fred Beauvais, named as a correspondent by Mr. Stillman, is the father of Guy.

The annual Cedar Day exercises at Cedarville College represent the most important affair of the year, and this year's exercises held last week were no exception.

The largest crowd in the history of the annual celebration was drawn to the out-door pageant which depicts the development of civilization through its various stages, all classes taking part in the exercises. Cedarville College, gradually growing in importance as an educational institution, will be made even more important through the campaign for a $200,000 endowment, which was endorsed by the board of trustees at its meeting during the Commencement week.

At the alumni meeting and banquet held at that time, the Alumni Association pledged itself to raise $100,000 of the $200,000 quota, that half to be used as permanent endowment. The Rev. J. Alvin Orr, D. D., pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church at Pittsburgh, Pa., is heading the alumni campaign, and has himself guaranteed one-tenth of the amount. Three other friends of Cedarville have made similar promises, which if carried out will swell the fund to $40,000 before the actual solicitation work is consummated.

In conjunction with the campaign by alumni, a citizen's committee has been appointed at Cedarville, to raise the other $100,000 which will be used to erect buildings on the College campus. The money will be used to erect a new gymnasium, a new girls' dormitory and to convert the present gymnasium into a science hall.

Ed Jobe is chairman of this committee, Dr. M. I. Marsh, secretary, E. Olds, American Red Cross commissioner for Europe, announced his resignation. His successor has not yet been appointed.

INTERESTING WEDDING JUST COMES TO LIGHT

A mock wedding at the announcement party given by Miss Bessie Scarff and Miss Lucia Jenner at the former's home on South Detroit Street Wednesday evening was broken up when it was learned that the "bride", Miss Georgia Jenner, was already a real bride, her marriage to Mr. Frederick M. Ervin, of West Market Street, having taken place in Covington, Ky., March 19. Because of the fact that Mrs. Ervin was a member of the class of 1921 of Central High School, which graduated Tuesday evening, the marriage was kept a secret, until after the school ceremonies were concluded. Although immediate members of the families of both young people were informed of the marriage, their closest friends were kept in the dark until the announcement Wednesday evening.

Guests at the party at which Miss Scarff and Miss Lucia Jenner were hostesses assembled at eight o'clock and at eight-thirty promptly the ceremony of the mock wedding began. The bride herself was the mock bride in the ceremony and Miss Violet Lane was the groom. Miss Emma Dymond acted as the minister, while little Dorothy Scarff was the flower girl and little Robert Jenner, brother of the bride was ring bearer. Mrs. Leslie Jordan sister of the bride, played the wedding march during the "service." When the ceremony continued to the point where the "minister," repeated the words asking if there was any real objection to the ceremony being carried through little Miss Mary Catherine Jordan, ran into the room, bearing the marriage certificate of the real bride and groom. The reading of the certificate which certified the marriage of Miss Jenner and Mr. Ervin announced to the guests the real reason for the party. The young couple, announced they were motoring to Dayton on the day of their marriage, but from there went to Covington, where their marriage took place, returning that afternoon. Their families were notified shortly afterward.

The affair was arranged as a miscellaneous shower, and after the mock ceremony, the bride was busy opening the many presents she received. The colors of her class of Central High School, green and white, were used in the decorations throughout the house, white roses being the flower.

Refreshments were served at tables arranged on the lawn, ice cream molded in roses being served with cake, and hand made roses were the favors at each place. Seated at the bride's table were Mrs. Ervin, Misses Margaret Davis, Sabina Ross, Emma Dymond, Violet Lane, Elizabeth Dodds, Hetty Holman and Eula Custis.

The bride wore her graduation gown of white georgette and a wedding veil and she carried white roses. Mrs. Ervin is the third daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Jenner of Home avenue and was a popular member of her graduating class. Mr. Ervin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ervin of West Market street. He graduated from Central High School in 1916 and from Muskingum College in 1920, teaching during the past year in the Springfield High School. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left on a honeymoon trip of about ten days, but would not disclose their destination. On their return they will be at home for a time after June twenty-fifth at the home of Mr. Ervin's parents.

There were forty guests at the cleverly arranged announcement party given Wednesday evening, including many members of the graduating class of Central High School. Out of town guests included Miss Gurdene Chamberlin of Wisconsin, who is the guest of Miss Reba Anders and Miss Helen Barr, of Loveland, and who is Miss Olivia Cost's guest.

"The bride wore a beautiful gown of navy blue pussy willow embroidered in gold and a large picture hat trimmed with flowers. Her slippers were of a matching shade and her flowers were roses and sweet peas arranged in a corsage.

"The attendants were Miss Madelon Erler and Horace Prince and they accompanied the newlyweds as far as Xenia, where they stopped for a short visit with Mrs. Dye's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Swartz, and from there left for Kokomo, Indiana, where they will be the guests of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Schaffer.

"Mrs. Dye has been employed as a clerk in the dry goods store of Fred Steff & Son and has made many friends and acquaintances in Troy and vicinity. The groom, who is employed as shipping clerk with the Troy Sunshade Company, is a member of the Varsity Club, and is popular in his circle of friends.

The five graduates were given their degrees by Prof. Dawson Wednesday morning, following an inspiring commencement address by President W. O. Thompson of Ohio State University. President Arthur E. Morgan, of Antioch, also spoke briefly, in his introduction of Dr. Thompson. ## ANNUAL BANQUET OF HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI ARRANGED

Elaborate plans are being laid to make the annual banquet of the Central High School Alumni Association and reception to the incoming class, which will be held at the Knights of Pythias Hall, Friday evening, one of the most pretentious of the annual affairs.

Committees selected by President J. Perry Shumaker have been working hard on the program, and the entertainment committee, of which Charles A. Bone, is chairman, has been especially active in preparing entertainment for the big crowd expected.

The reception will start at 6:30 o'clock, when the sixty-eight members of the Class of 1921 who graduated this week, will be received into the organization of alumni. These new members will be guests for the evening of the association. A banquet will be served in the lodge dining hall, which will be in charge of Jacob Kany, and an after dinner program has been arranged for the time following the meal.

President Shumaker will deliver the welcoming address to the incoming class, to which John Wolford, class president, will respond. John Beauchamp, business manager of the city schools will talk on the new high school, telling of the plans for the new building to be erected here.

Miss Thelma Flanery, will give several readings, as part of the program, and Miss Emma Jean Davidson and Miss Effa Stroup, will each offer vocal solos. A male quartette composed of Lawrence Wagner, Louis Clark, Dr. A. B. Kester and Frank C. Bishop will also sing several selections.

During the banquet, McKay's Orchestra from Wilmington, will furnish music, and following the banquet will play for dancing in the lodge dance hall.

Officers of the Association for the coming year will be elected at the business session which will follow the banquet. It is expected that 250 people, all that can be taken care of, will attend the banquet.

BOY STILL HELD FOR EXAMINATION

Jimmy Blangy, ten-year old Cedarville boy who shot and killed his eight-year old brother, Virgil, last week, is still under the care of Dr. H. H. Goddard, alienist, with the State Bureau of Juvenile Research in Columbus.

The lad, who was taken care of at the residence of Sheriff I. Funderburg during last week was taken to Columbus last Friday by Probation Officer Joseph Watts. It was at first believed that Dr. Goddard would take but a short time for the examination to determine whether the boy is normal mentally but he became interested in the case and asked that Jimmy be left in his care for a time.

It is expected that when Dr. Goddard has satisfied himself concerning the lad, that he will ask that Probation Officer Watts be sent after him. Action in Juvenile Court here regarding the shooting will necessarily be deferred until his return.

WIRELESS PICTURE OF CONDITIONS IN BERLIN TODAY, AS FOUND BY COL. HOUSE.

How wonderfully conditions change in a few years. Who would have believed, only a short time ago, that within a short time an American newspaper would be publishing very long wireless dispatches from Germany? Yet they are doing it today.

The Philadelphia Public Ledger daily receives such messages from its special correspondent, Col. Edward M. House, from Berlin. As evidence of this, and because we all want to know how they are behaving over there, we publish the following extracts from one such dispatch from Berlin received yesterday:

"Berlin is as clean and orderly as formerly, but there are few if any expensive motors to be seen. The head of the largest bank here has none of any kind and this is merely a typical, not an isolated, case. His residence, a very large and expensive one, is now shared with four other families, each having a separate kitchen and menage. This, too, is the rule, not an exception.

The theatres and restaurants are fairly well filled, but not with fashionable people. These latter have almost entirely disappeared and are on their country estates, where living conditions are cheaper. The profiteer is here as elsewhere and spending money freely. The Government finds it difficult to impose taxes on this class, for their wealth is elusive and largely out of reach. They are even more unpopular here than in other countries, and are the cause of much dissatisfaction.

"There is no evidence or display of jewelry in Berlin at all, comparable with New York, Paris and London, and hardly more than one finds in cities of the third class in the United States, France or Great Britain.

"On the surface one sees no evidence of feeling against America. Our interests in Germany have been admirably cared for by the American commissioner, Ellis Loring Dresel, and General Henry T. Allen. It would be hard to exaggerate the influence which these two men have had. By their good work under difficult conditions they have compelled the respect of Germans in all walks of life.

"Foreigners see us and know us as our representatives appear to them and we are fortunate in having two such men during these critical times."

FORMER RESIDENT OF THE PHILIPPINES DECLARES THEY ARE NOT FIT FOR INDEPENDENCE.

I spent three years in the Philippines, traveled through the numerous islands, lived exclusively with Filipinos, spoke a native dialect in addition to Spanish and had a real opportunity to come in close contact with Filipinos, both educated and otherwise. I like them personally, and although during the insurrection they behaved like savages, which they really are, they have under the efficient rule of the American constabulary and courts calmed down externally sufficiently to be considered even docile. The present agitation for independence is the work of a very small group of educated native Abogados and Caciques, who are natural-born orators and professional politicians. Unless checked by proper authority, they run the country to suit themselves.

There is hardly an American who ever lived in the island who does not realize that Filipino officials are the people's greatest enemy and a source of greatest danger, in the sense that, left to themselves, they neither have the ability nor the sincere desire to govern the country for the benefit of the poor.

Like all the countries under the Spanish misrule, they are infected by the revolution bug; and like all other Spanish-speaking opera bouffe republics, if left alone they will pay in blood-money and misery for the misgovernment which they hope to enjoy under their own officials.

In my opinion, the only real independence that they ever did enjoy or ever will enjoy was that which existed while they were governed by Americans sent by the Republican Administration.

BUSINESS EDUCATION OR COLLEGE EDUCATION, WHICH BEST?

Many have gone so far as to declare that a college education is a positive detriment to the accomplishment of success in business. If a young man sets success in business as the goal of his ambitions, it is essential for him to give careful consideration to the question as to whether or not the path to such success leads through the college. The stick-to-it-iveness and the energy necessary to carry a young man through to graduation are potent elements of business success. Possessing these qualities and a taste for business, would he not be better able to accomplish business success without a college education?

During four years of his youth, when his mind is most impressionable the formative years, as they have been called, he sits under the tuition and influence of highly educated, greatly devoted and sincere men who are financial incompetents, who entertain as little interest or understanding of business as the boy himself when he enters college.

The curriculum of the College of Hard Knocks contains a grueling course entitled "Making Money Make Money," and from it many have graduated with a six-figure mark. Nothing even remotely resembling such a course has ever come within the cognizance of the technical student. Whatever might have been his money-making capabilities on the day he entered college, they were likely to become atrophied through neglect, if not actually extinguished during his formative years.

1901--Twenty Years Ago--1921

The children of St. Brigids school together with the music pupils will give an entertainment in the Opera House this evening, and it promises to be one of the best ever given in this city.

The graduating class of Central High School very handsomely remembered Miss Elwell who has taken so much pains in the great event of tomorrow surprised her this morning and presented her with a beautiful gold watch.

Harry Sparks has his headquarters at present with the Cleveland Construction Company in the Arcade, in Springfield.

Speaking of the boom Xenia is now enjoying, one of our business men said this morning that his business was never better than it has been since the first of the year. When the traction lines were first built to Dayton, the people went to that city for bargains, but finally decided that bargains could be obtained here at home. With a traction line to Wilmington which now seems assured, and with the present prosperous condition, things look bright for Xenia merchants.

AN EDITORIAL ON ADVERTISING

Advertising of a worthy product lowers cost because it intensifies action. The biggest expense cost of any merchant or any manufacturer is overhead cost. The fixed expenses like rent, clerk hire, bookkeeping expense, machinery costs, etc., he must pay no matter what he sells.

When through advertising he doubles and trebles his sales this overhead expense increases very little so his profits increase greatly. Thus he can decrease prices.

A manufacturer who sells 500,000 washing machines a year can afford to give bigger value for the customer's money than the manufacturer who sells 10,000 a year. This is a fact. The greater production the less the cost of production.

So when a manufacturer through advertising increases his production he either lowers the cost of his article he sells or puts more value into that article. This benefits the merchant and benefits the consumer.

The benefits of advertising increase in a cycle.

First, advertising at a surprisingly low cost increases the sale of the merchandise. This increased sale makes possible an increased value of the merchandise—or a decrease in price. This increase in value for the same money, or the same value for less money, in turn stimulates more purchases which again increases value or decreases prices and so on and so on.

To illustrate how advertising lowers cost to the consumer, we may take the example of a well known motor car. The advertising cost per sale is $50 per car.

But without the great sales which advertising built for this company—the cost of making and selling this car would be at least $200 more. So advertising in this instance has saved the consumer $150. It has saved the consumer really more, because the manufacturer will make more total money by selling many cars each one at a small percentage of profit than few at a great percentage of profit.

What is true of motor cars, is true of clothes, of food products, of everything we buy and use every day.

The most economical clothes the most economical food, the best values are invariably the well advertised brands.

And the best merchandise the greatest value for each dollar you invest is found at the store of the merchant who enjoys the greatest patronage, because of the confidence they have built up through truthfully advertising well advertised brands.

We have said advertising intensifies action. When you think of it this means the greatest possible protection for the customers.

For no advertiser can afford to invest money in advertising an article that is not worthy. He might sell this product at first through advertising, but there could be no repeat orders and instead of building up confidence he would be sowing the seeds of discontent.

So to-day the manufacturer or merchant who succeeds in advertising first of all must advertise a product in which he has absolute over any length of time unless he stood squarely behind the products he sold.

Such advertisers have made their reputation through the integrity of their product and the truthfulness of their advertising about that product.

Your confidence in advertised goods and institutions is justified, because of these facts:

It does not pay to advertise inferior products. It does pay to advertise worthy products.

Read the papers and read the advertising. You can believe in it and right in your own home sitting in your easy chair, you can pick out the things you want at the prices you want to pay.

It pays to read advertising because it saves you shopping around. Advertising—newspaper advertising—is a Direction—a Protection—and a saving to the buyer. Read it.

Foley Kidney Pills help rid the blood stream of impurities that cause rheumatic pains, backache, swollen, aching joints and stiff, painful muscles. Mrs. Carey, Box 91, R. F. D. No. 2, Middle town, N. They act immediately and help restore the kidneys to healthful activity. Sayre & Hemphill.

Practical Business Talks

WE ARE NOT ISOLATED.

It was only a short time ago that the average American knew little of geography beyond his own bailiwick.

He was more interested in a cat fight on his back fence, than in the price of wheat in Liverpool or the latest developments in Belgium or Argentina.

The Great War not only broadened the vision of the average citizen, but made him realize that no country can remain isolated. What happens in Europe or South America today may effect a man's pay envelope tomorrow.

If German factories can manufacture steel cheaper than we can, thousands of steel workers in the United States almost immediately face a loss in the revenue from their occupation.

The United States can consume only a part of the various products it manufactures. The surplus must be sold abroad or else our factories will be idle a large part of the time.

Foreign trade, foreign affairs in general, are of vital interest and concern to every American citizen. They are now reading the foreign dispatches in their newspapers with enhanced interest and studying foreign affairs with deeper realization of their influence on their own prosperity.

THE QUIET ONES.

Some people quietly proceed, and take no part in fuss or broil; they do their stunts with grace and speed, and make no racket as they toil. Retiring gents they are not sharks for any pomp or circumstance; they do not rise to make remarks whenever they see half a chance. They do not ask us for our votes and argue in the busy marts; and if perchance they lose their goats they bear their sorrow in their hearts. And in this world of endless noise, where human flivvers rant and roar, we learn to love the quiet boys who smoothly do the useful chore. They jog along their even groove, and draw good pay and earn it all; and read chaste volumes to improve their minds when evening shadows fall. They'll be on time, as sure as fate, on time for work when morning comes; they'll have no stories to relate of high adventures in the slums. All through the years they work, serene, these quiet, self-effacing lads; and this old world is worse, I ween, when they are gathered to their dads. Oh, these be times of blatant sound, of strident boast and loud harangue; the men who make the wheels go round are not the fizz-and-fireworks gang.

PONS-WINNECKE COMET WILL BE VISIBLE ABOUT THE END OF JUNE

Denver.—The Pons-Winnecke comet, an itinerant of the sky that is supposed to be present in the heavens about once every six years is flitting around the milky way and may be seen by the naked eye during the latter part of June according to Dean Herbert A. Howe, professor of astronomy at Denver University.

With the aid of a twenty-eight-inch telescope, Dean Howe already has observed a "white light against the sky" that he believes is Pons-Winnecke.

"The comet appears as a very faint observed, hazy spot on the sky, and stars may be easily seen through it," Dean Howe said, "in the large telescope a condensed nucleus of the eleventh magnitude almost stellar in appearance, is readily seen, and the nebulousity about it extends chiefly in one direction from the nucleus, as if it were trying to develop a tail. At present it is doubling its brightness every fortnight.

Hailed as Mystery Comet Dean Howe described the position of Pons-Winnecke as near the star Iota Herculis. He said the comet is moving a degree a day eastward and drifting a little northward. It will, however, change its northerly course in a few days and will then go south as well as east, he said. Astronomers at Denver University are nightly watching the progress of Pons-Winnecke across the heavens.

There is considerable mystery about the comet. The dimensions of its orbit are extremely vague and astronomers at various observatories have been asked to keep a watch this year in an effort to secure more definite measurements on the "fly-by night."

When Pons-Winnecke reaches its perihelion, late in June, it is expected a great shower of meteors will fall.

While it is possible that the comet may not be visible to the naked eye, Dean Howe says that small telescopes will bring it into view.

Styles BY LENORE

Veiled in a cloud of filmy tulle, a recent bride, the daughter of a famous designer in Paris demonstrated the everlasting charm of simlicity in a wedding gown fashioned of white satin, made misty with an overdrawing of fine net, open at the side.

Suitable for an elaborate church ceremony or the quiet wedding at home is this charming gown with its demure bodice and girle of orange blossoms. A crown of orange blossoms catches the veil, and little clusters of the flowers, are scattered over the rippling train.

As shown adapted in the sketch, this model may be copied within a modest budget.

PATTERN NO. 185.

A pattern for the above model (No. 185) can be obtained in sizes 34, 36, 38 or 40, by sending to Lenore, 8 West 40th Street, New York City, your name, address, the number of this pattern and the size required and 25 cents in postage stamps. Be sure to keep this newspaper clipping of the sketch and description of the garment to use as a working model when the pattern reaches you—which will be within two weeks' time. The Editor.

SAY HARVEST HELP IS ABUNDANT IN U. S. WHEAT BELT

Advises received by the department of Agriculture from its agents in the field indicate that there will be no general shortage of labor, for the wheat harvest, and that in some areas there will be a decided surplus.

In Kansas, where the harvest begins about June 15 in the southern tier of counties, the supply of labor is already in excess of the demand. In that State wages for shockers do not run over $2 a day with board and lodging.

In Texas, where harvest is already in progress, there seems to be labor enough to meet all demands, with the possible exception of the "Panhandle" district. In Texas harvest wages run from $2 to $2.50 a day.

In the northern wheat States the situation has not yet developed sufficiently to make possible reliable estimates as to demands for outside labor, but it seems probable that the labor market will be comparatively easy in most localities, with the prevailing wage not over $3 a day.

SUGAR SELLS AT FOUR CENTS

New York, June 15.—The lowest level recorded in the local sugar market in five years was reported with the sale of 24,500 bags of centrifugal at 4 cents. Renewed pressure on Porto Rican sugar brought about the decline brought about the decline.

FIXING IT FOR BABE!

New London, Conn. June 14.—The graduating class at the Connecticut College for Women voted to give to the first girl born to a member a four year's tuition. The sum of $21 will be placed in a bank to the credit of the first boy born with additional deposits every birthday.

SIX DROWN IN FLOOD.

Sayre, Okla., June 15.—Six persons are known to have been drowned when they were caught in flood waters of Timber and Short Creeks after those streams had risen several feet during a cloudburst here. The creeks flow into the north fork of the Red River above this city.

TROUBLED FOR TEN YEARS

If you suffer pains and aches during the day and sleep-disturbing bladder weakness by night, feel tired, nervous and run down, the kidneys and bladder need to be restored to healthy and regular action. J. T. Osburn R. F. D. No. 1, Lucasville, O., writes: "I had kidney trouble for ten years I tried many remedies but they did me no good. I took Foley Kidney Pills and they helped me so much that now I am well." Don't delay Sayre & Hemphill.

WOMEN WHO CANNOT WORK

Read Mrs. Corley's Letter and Benefit by Her Experience

Edmund, S.C.—"I was run down with nervousness and female trouble and suffered every month. I was not able to do any work and tried a lot of medicine, but got no relief. I saw your medicine advertised in a little book that was thrown in my door, and I had not taken two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before I could see it was helping me. I am keeping house now and am able to do all of my work. I cannot say enough for your medicine. It has done more for me than any doctor. I have not paper enough to tell you how much it has done for me and for my friends. You may print this letter if you wish."—ELIZABETH C. CORLEY, care of A. P. Corley, Edmund, S. C.

Ability to stand the strain of work is the privilege of the strong and healthy, but how our hearts ache for the weak and sickly women struggling with their daily rounds of household duties, with backaches, headaches, nervousness and almost every movement brings a new pain. Why will not the mass of letters from women all over this country, which we have been publishing, convince such women that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help them just as surely as it did Mrs. Corley?

SAYS HIS PRESCRIPTION HAS POWERFUL INFLUENCE OVER RHEUMATISM

Mr. James E. Amen who suffered for many years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work. He finally decided to try a new ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system. He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Sayre & Hemphill have been appointed agents for Allenhu in this vicinity with the turn the purchase money to all who state they received no benefit.

An Easy Way For Thin People to Put On Flesh and Gain Weight

Strong, Straightforward Advice to Thin, Undeveloped Men and Women.

If you are thin, scrawny and undeveloped, if your face is peaked and your cheeks and neck exhibit unsightly hollows, it's almost certain that your nervous system is at the bottom of your trouble. You can eat three, yes four, substantial, fat producing meals a day, but as long as your stomach has an insufficient supply of nerve force this food you eat will pass out of the body with little if any benefit. In order to assimilate properly the nourishing food you eat and convert it into healthy tissue and fat the nerves that control the process of digestion and assimilation must be put in first-class shape and until that is done you might just as well quit trying to put on flesh. Your system is starving for something that will turn the food you eat into healthy stay-there flesh and it can only be done in one way—by correcting faulty nervous digestion. Thin, nervous, run-down people however, with impoverished blood and half starved looks are hailing with delight a quick and certain maker of solid flesh called EVANS' TRIPLE PHOSPHATES that is unequalled for repairing faulty digestion and correcting nervous digestive troubles. In fact the makers of Evans' Triple Phosphates guarantee that one month's treatment will increase your weight by several pounds and within ten days make you feel like a new being, full of ambition, vigor and a desire to accomplish things. Sons' Drug Store, Sayre & Hemphill, and leading druggists everywhere have agreed to supply Evans' Triple Phosphates and guarantee it to do just what is claimed for it or money refunded. Caption: While Evans' Triple Phosphates accomplishes wonders in nervous digestive troubles and as a general nerve-tonic, it should not be taken by anyone who objects to a few additional pounds of solid stay-there flesh.

WAR SUPPLIES REMOVED FROM SHIP, GUARDED

Believe Materials Were
Consigned To Irish
Army.

500 MACHINE GUNS

Search Warrant Issued By
Supplies

New York, June 16.—Between 500 and 600 Thompson machine guns and other war materials which were seized on board the freighter East Side in the belief that they were consigned to the Irish republican army, were under a joint guard of police and federal customs officers in Hoboken today while the United States authorities made an investigation to try and find out who had purchased the arms, who had shipped them and the identity of the consignee.

The war supplies were taken from the freighter just a short time before she sailed for Norfolk. Her ultimate destination is an Irish port.

The machine guns, together with many varieties of magazines, a case of ammunition and 175 boxes believed to hold small arms are valued at $150,000. The machine guns are known as "Thompson Sub-machine guns" and are the latest thing in death dealing machinery, being capable of firing more than 600 shots a minute.

The search warrant upon which the machine guns were seized, had been issued by the Hoboken police. Afterwards a difference of opinion had developed between the Hoboken police and the federal authorities as to the real custodians of the weapons so it was decided at a hearing before Recorder Adolph Charston at Hoboken that the machine guns had been manufactured by the Colts Patent Firearms Manufacturing Company. The East Side is not listed in Lloyd's register of shipping for 1920. She is said to have been built by the United States shipping board and leased to the cosmopolitan Shipping Company.

Federal officers of the port of New York, said that "certain arms" had been detained, pending an investigation "but refused to say if the authorities had any definite information about arms and ammunition being smuggled from this port to Ireland for use by the Sinn Fein. The machine guns had been concealed in sacks that were hidden in the East Side's coal bunkers.

CHINESE WALL THROWN ABOUT SOVIET RUSSIA

U. S. Senator May Be Denied
Entrance To Country.

Berlin, June 16.—The "cold shoulder" policy which soviet Russia is adopting toward the United States may prevent U. S. Senator Joseph I. France, of Maryland from carrying out his plan to study Russian conditions at close range.

Senator France's request for passport papers to get into Russia has not been definitely refused, but delay has developed and it was pointed out today that the Moscow soviet has constructed a veritable Chinese wall around the country shutting it off completely from the rest of the world. Already passports have been refused to several other Americans but whether an exception will be made in the case of the senator is not yet apparent.

Senator France denied to the International News Service a report from Riga that the soviet government had refused to allow him to enter Russia. Senator France pointed out that he had come to Berlin from London and had not yet been in Riga. While in London, the senator called upon Leonid Krassin, head of the Russian bolshevik trade mission and asked his assistance in getting into Russia. Later, he decided to come to Berlin and endeavor to get his passport vised by the soviet envoy to Germany. During the interval of waiting, the senator is conferring with persons conversant with industrial conditions in Russia to get a line on the situation.

Should Senator France eventually get the desired permission to enter soviet Russia, he probably will have Germans to thank, in no small measure. The senator is said to be keenly disappointed over the turn affairs have taken but has not yet given up hope of getting into Russia.

The Moscow government has already refused to allow William H. Johnston, president of the International Machinist Union; Herman Bernstein and Lincoln Staffens, to enter Russia. Mr. Johnston has returned to Berlin from Riga, where he was officially informed of the decision of the Russian government.

Politics And Irish Issue Engage A. F. O. L. Meeting

Denver, June 16.—Proposals of a "one big union" in the American Federation of Labor has been made for the first time in the federation's history.

Two resolutions introduced today provide for united action by all crafts affiliated with the federation, which would enable the body to operate in effect as one big union on matters vital to organized labor in general.

One resolution would empower the executive council with the authority to declare a general strike to combat nation wide movements to reduce wages and union standards.

Denver, Colo., June 16.—Politics and the Irish question will keep the American Federation of Labor seething from now on, according to developments today.

The movement to oust Samuel Gompers, for thirty nine years head of the federation, has come to life with a bang. The campaign to elect John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers of America, the largest union in the federation, is now in the open.

Lewis' supporters are actively at work in his behalf, making known that he is a receptive candidate, and sounding sentiment. They declare their activities and Lewis' silence.

GERMANY PROTESTS AGAINST OF ALLIED TROOPS IN UPPER SILESIA

Berlin, June 16.—Germany sent a note to the allies today protesting against the inactivity of the allied troops in Upper Silesia. The German government cited the treaty of Versailles as a basis for the protest.

The allied high command in Upper Silesia ordered the British advance against the Polish insurgents halted several days ago on the ground that the German volunteers should retire before the allies continued their operation.

Gen. Hofer, commander of the German volunteers, has begun to move back his troops and has already withdrawn some of the German outposts, according to the word from Oppeln.

Allies Discuss Shares In Indemnity From Germany

Paris, June 16.—A series of compromise conferences were begun at the foreign office today to determine the amount that each of the European powers shall get from the installments of German indemnity already paid. This question was thought to have been settled at Spa, but some of the nations took exceptions to the pro rata shares that were allotted by the supreme council. Delegates representing the finance ministers of all the interested powers are taking part in the conferences.

France, England, Belgium and Italy, are sticking to the percentages allotted to them at Spa, but the small nations that were associated with the big allies during the war, are quarreling over the shares allotted to them. Representatives of the chief allied nations were disposed to lump the residue, after subtracting the sums granted Great Britain, France, Belgium and Italy and some of the little countries were seized with the fear that they were not going to get enough.

Even Czechoslovakia, one of the new countries created out of the old Austro-Hungarian empire is claiming part of the German reparations on the ground she declared war against Germany a few days before the conflict ended.

After the delegates reach agreements on the amounts to be distributed to the little nations, the finance ministers will meet to approve the settlement.

AUTHORITIES BURN HOME, BUT CULPRIT MAKES GETAWAY

Trouble Starts Over Arrest
Of Son at Frankfort, Kentucky.

Frankfort, Ky., June 16.—John Fallis, who shot four policemen and two bystanders during a siege of his home last night, was not in the house this morning when it was burned after a vain battle to get Fallis. He is thought to have escaped during the night. When flames broke out this morning the place was rushed, as it was thought Fallis was within. He was not found.

Armed men had surrounded the house during the night pouring shots into it. The trouble began when police Wednesday night arrested Carlos Fallis, eighteen year old son of John Fallis, a grocer, Spanish War veteran and known as a hot tempered individual. Fallis met the police on the way to jail with his son and demanded release. When it was refused, he opened fire.

Policeman Gus Waincott was shot through the liver and the arth Policeman Wilhelm was wounded in the shoulder. Fallis and son rushed to their house. Policeman C. E. Noonan went there and was warned not to enter. When he did, Fallis shot him in the face, chest and arms with a shotgun.

Police and a posse surrounded the house. Carlos Fallis came out to confer with former Mayor Polsgrove, who was urging him to get his father to surrender. While he was talking, Fallis was shot through the thigh. The bullet is thought to have been fired by his father. He was taken to the hospital. During the siege of the house, Jeff Lynn and John Foster, members of posse were wounded. A state wide search for Fallis is on.

RAILROAD BRIDGE GIVES WAY, 6 COACHES PLUNGE INTO WATER KILLING 4

Chicago and Northwestern Train Meets Disaster Near Crawford, Nebraska, Early Thursday, When Bridge Collapses.

Omaha, Neb., June 16.—Loss of life in the wreck of eastbound Chicago and Northwestern train No. 606, from Lander, Wyo., to Omaha and Chicago, which early today plunged into Cottonwood creek near Crawford, Neb., is not expected to reach more than six.

Early reports of the disaster were found to be exaggerated. The train consisted of a pullman sleeper, chair cars, coaches, a smoker and baggage and express cars. As the train was passing over the Cottonwood creek, swollen by storms, the structure gave way, six of the coaches, it is reported, falling into the stream and becoming partly submerged. Early reports said the engine with the baggage and express cars, passed safely over the bridge. The pullman car, the rear one on the train, remained on the rails, but reports said that in this car twelve were hurt. One of the chair cars is reported to have landed on top of the smoker. A relief train was sent from Chadron, 30 miles from the wreck scene which is near the Wyoming border.

Omaha, Neb., June 16.—Four persons are known to have been killed and many injured early today when three coaches of a Chicago and Northwestern train plunged through a bridge into flood waters near Crawford, Neb. It was said the dead may run as high as fifty. Twelve persons were rescued alive, all suffering from injuries.

Before 7 a. m. searching parties had recovered four bodies from windows of the passenger coaches. The engine, a smoker, a chair car and one pullman sleeper were reported to have tumbled into the water.

The rescuers, made up chiefly of railroad men rushed to the scene on a relief train from Chadron, Neb., the division terminal, worked frantically in the belief that many men, women and children were, imprisoned in the partly submerged coaches.

According to information received here, the fatality occurred shortly after midnight. The train had left Omaha, bound on a branch line for Lader, Wyoming the western terminal of the Chicago and Northwestern road. Telephonic advices from the engine crew stated that part of the train had passed over a bridge spanning the Big Cottonwood creek, when the bridge gave way. The engine crew gave first word of the wreck from a nearby farm house.

SIMS' CHARGES ALL BASE LIES CLAIMS PAPER

Rear Admiral Not An American Says Free-
mans Journal.

Dublin, June 16.—The allegation of Rear Admiral Sims, U. S. N., that Americans lost their lives in the war as a result of Sinn Fein activities was denied today by the Freeman's Journal.

"The 'die hards' who have been exploiting Admiral Sims' anti-Irishism are gravely chagrined at his recall by Secretary of the Navy Denby," said the Freeman's Journal.

"Admiral Sims is not an American. He is British-born. Throughout his whole career he has shown himself more British than American. The explosion against Ireland was not the explosion of an American officer but a Canadian orangeman."

"Congress has already shown what it thinks of the scandal. The net result is the repudiation of Admiral Sims and his libels by the American government."

"Admiral Sims' charges are all base lies. No American soldier or sailor died on the Atlantic because of any Sinn Fein activity. The only American lads lost were lost through the incapacity of the American and British naval commands. They put a 'lame duck' transport on one of the flotillas and when it fell behind the line, it was torpedoed off the Atlantic coast. That was the only loss in Irish waters."

"The libels are an outrage upon the Irish dead, thousands of whom died under the stars and stripes at Chateau Thierry."

"That is the only answer that need be made to this American-Anglo maniac."

MRS. STILLMAN IS CONFIDENT AT TRIAL

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 16.—Mrs. James A. Stillman, wife of the former president of the National City Bank, was smiling, cheerful and confident when the hearings in her husband's divorce suit were continued today, before, Referee Daniel J. Gleason. It was expected that more former servants would be called and that the testimony would be along the same line as yesterday when seven witnesses, including Mrs. Percy A. Rockefeller, Mr. Stillman's sister, were called in the indirect attack against the legitimacy of Baby Guy Stillman.

Lawyers for the former banker were in conference during the morning and it was regarded as possible that they might advance their plans and put Dr. Hugh Russell, Buffalo osteopath, on the stand today instead of waiting until tomorrow. Dr. Russell treated Mrs. Stillman at Buffalo and had testified at a previous session that Mrs. Stillman had confessed to him that Fred Beauvais, named as a correspondent by Mr. Stillman, is the father of Guy.

Cedarville College, gradually growing in importance as an educational institution, will be made even more important through the campaign for a $200,000 endowment, which was endorsed by the board of trustees at its meeting during the Commencement week.

At the alumni meeting and banquet held at that time, the Alumni Association pledged itself to raise $100,000 of the $200,000 quota, that half to be used as permanent endowment. The Rev. J. Alvin Orr, D. D., pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church at Pittsburgh, Pa., is heading the alumni campaign, and has himself guaranteed one-tenth of the amount. Three other friends of Cedarville have made similar promises, which if carried out will swell the fund to $40,000 before the actual solicitation work is consummated.

In conjunction with the campaign by alumni, a citizen's committee has been appointed at Cedarville, to raise the other $100,000 which will be used to erect buildings on the College campus. The money will be used to erect a new gymnasium, a new girls' dormitory and to convert the present gymnasium into a science hall.

Ed Jobe is chairman of this committee, Dr. M. I. Marsh, secretary and George Hartman, O. E. Bradfute, Clayton MacMillan and others are members. This committee will meet in Cedarville Thursday night, with all of the local members of the board of trustees and plans for the drive which will be started soon, will be perfected. The drive will be carried through the summer with its conclusion next fall, by which it is hoped that the fund will be raised and the new and much needed buildings, assured.

Ed Jobe is chairman of this committee, Dr. M. I. Marsh, secretary and George Hartman, O. E. Bradfute, Clayton MacMillan and others are members. This committee will meet in Cedarville Thursday night, with all of the local members of the board of trustees and plans for the drive which will be started soon, will be perfected. The drive will be carried through the summer with its conclusion next fall, by which it is hoped that the fund will be raised and the new and much needed buildings, assured.

At the alumni meeting and banquet held at that time, the Alumni Association pledged itself to raise $100,000 of the $200,000 quota, that half to be used as permanent endowment. The Rev. J. Alvin Orr, D. D., pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church at Pittsburgh, Pa., is heading the alumni campaign, and has himself guaranteed one-tenth of the amount. Three other friends of Cedarville have made similar promises, which if carried out will swell the fund to $40,000 before the actual solicitation work is consummated.

In conjunction with the campaign by alumni, a citizen's committee has been appointed at Cedarville, to raise the other $100,000 which will be used to erect buildings on the College campus. The money will be used to erect a new gymnasium, a new girls' dormitory and to convert the present gymnasium into a science hall.

INTERESTING WEDDING JUST COMES TO LIGHT

A mock wedding at the announcement party given by Miss Bessie Scarff and Miss Lucia Jenner at the former's home on South Detroit Street Wednesday evening was broken up when it was learned that the "bride", Miss Georgia Jenner, was already a real bride, her marriage to Mr. Frederick M. Ervin, of West Market Street, having taken place in Covington, Ky., March 19. Because of the fact that Mrs. Ervin was a member of the class of 1921 of Central High School, which graduated Tuesday evening, the marriage was kept a secret, until after the school ceremonies were concluded. Although immediate members of the families of both young people were informed of the marriage, their closest friends were kept in the dark until the announcement Wednesday evening.

Guests at the party at which Miss Scarff and Miss Lucia Jenner were hostesses assembled at eight o'clock and at eight-thirty promptly the ceremony of the mock wedding began. The bride, herself was the mock bride in the ceremony and Miss Violet Lane was the groom. Miss Emma Dymond acted as the minister, while little Dorothy Scarff was the flower girl and little Robert Jenner, brother of the bride was ring bearer. Mrs. Leslie Jordan sister of the bride, played the wedding march during the "service." When the ceremony continued to the point where the "minister," repeated the words asking if there was any real objection to the ceremony being carried through little Miss Mary Catherine Jordan, ran into the room, bearing the marriage certificate of the real bride and groom. The reading of the certificate which certified the marriage of Miss Jenner and Mr. Ervin announced to the guests the real reason for the party. The young couple, announced they were motoring to Dayton on the day of their marriage, but from there went to Covington, where their marriage took place, returning that afternoon. Their families were notified shortly afterward.

The affair was arranged as a miscellaneous shower, and after the mock ceremony, the bride was busy opening the many presents she received. The colors of her class of Central High School, green and white, were used in the decorations throughout the house, white roses being the flower.

Refreshments were served at tables arranged on the lawn, ice cream molded in roses being served with cake, and hand made roses were the favors at each plate. Seated at the Brides table were Mrs. Ervin, Misses Margaret Davis, Sabina Ross, Emma Dymond, Violet Lane, Elizabeth Dadds, Hetty Holman and Eula Custis.

The bride wore her graduation gown of white georgette and a wedding veil and she carried white roses. Mrs. Ervin is the third daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Jenner of Home avenue and was a popular member of her graduating class. Mr. Ervin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ervin of West Market street. He graduated from Central High School in 1916 and from Muskingum College in 1920, teaching during the past year in the Springfield High School. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left on a honeymoon trip of about ten days, but would not disclose their destination. On their return they will be at home for a time after June twenty-fifth at the home of Mr. Ervin's parents.

There were forty guests at the cleverly arranged announcement party given Wednesday evening, including many members of the graduating class of Central High School. Out of town guests included Miss Gerdene Chamberlin of Wisconsin, who is the guest of Mrs. Reba Anders and Miss Helen Barr, of Loveland, and who is Miss Olivia Cost's guest.

Waring read the impressive single ring service which united in marriage Miss May Swartz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Thorpe, and Wilbur Dye, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jud Dye, both of this city."

"The bride wore a beautiful gown of navy blue pussy willow embroidered in gold and a large picture hat trimmed with flowers. Her slippers were of a matching shade and her flowers were roses and sweet peas arranged in a corsage."

"The attendants were Miss Madelon Erter and Horace Prince and they accompanied the newlyweds as far as Xenia, where they stopped for a short visit with Mrs. Dye's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Swartz, and from there left for Kokomo, Indiana, where they will be the guests of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Schaffer."

The groom, who is employed as shipping clerk with the Troy Sunshade Company, is a member of the Varsity Club, and is popular in his circle of friends."

The five young men who, Wednesday morning, were given their degrees at Antioch College, were the honor guests at the annual reception held at the home of acting president William M. Dawson Wednesday evening.

The reception to which students, graduates, faculty and alumni were invited, was the last feature of the closing exercises of Antioch College under the old regime. Next fall the school will begin operation under its new regime, with an enrollment of from 250 to 300 students.

The five graduates were given their degrees by Prof. Dawson Wednesday morning, following an inspiring commencement address by President W. O. Thompson of Ohio State University. President Arthur E. Morgan, of Antioch, also spoke briefly, in his introduction of Dr. Thompson. Following the commencement exercises, the annual alumni banquet was held at noon in the college dining hall, and Congressman S. D. Fess, of Yellow Springs, and Prof. Philip C. ## ANNUAL BANQUET OF HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI ARRANGED

Elaborate plans are being laid to make the annual banquet of the Central High School Alumni Association and reception to the incoming class, which will be held at the Knights of Pythias Hall, Friday evening, one of the most pretentious of the annual affairs.

Committees selected by President J. Perry Shumaker have been working hard on the program, and the entertainment committee, of which Charles A. Bone, is chairman, has been especially active in preparing entertainment for the big crowd expected. The reception will start at 6:30 o'clock, when the sixty-eight members of the Class of 1921 who graduated this week, will be received into the organization of alumni. These new members will be guests for the evening of the association. A banquet will be served in the lodge dining hall, which will be in charge of Jacob Kany, and an after dinner program has been arranged for the time following the meal.

President Shumaker will deliver the welcoming address to the incoming class, to which John Wolford, class president, will respond. John Beauchamp, business manager of the city schools will talk on the new high school, telling of the plans for the new building to be erected here.

Miss Thelma Flannery, will give several readings, as part of the program, and Miss Emma Jean Davidson and Miss Effa Stroup, will each offer vocal solos. A male quartette composed of Lawrence Wagner, Louis Clark, Dr. A. B. Kester and Frank C. Bishop will also sing several selections.

During the banquet, McKay's Orchestra from Wilmington, will furnish music, and following the banquet will play for dancing in the lodge dance hall.

Officers of the Association for the coming year will be elected at the business session which will follow the banquet. It is expected that 250 people, all that can be taken care of, will attend the banquet.

BOY STILL HELD FOR EXAMINATION

Jimmy Blangy, ten-year old Cedarville boy who shot and killed his eight-year old brother, Virgil, last week, is still under the care of Dr. H. H. Goddard, alienist, with the State Bureau of Juvenile Research in Columbus.

The lad, who was taken care of at the residence of Sheriff I. Funderburg during last week was taken to Columbus last Friday by Probation Officer Joseph Watts. It was at first believed that Dr. Goddard would take but a short time for the examination to determine whether the boy is normal mentally but he became interested in the case and asked that Jimmy be left in his care for a time.

It is expected that when Dr. Goddard has satisfied himself concerning the lad, that he will ask that Probation Officer Watts be sent after him Action in Juvenile Court here regarding the shooting will necessarily be deferred until his return.

WIRELESS PICTURE OF CONDITIONS IN BERLIN TODAY, AS FOUND BY COL. HOUSE.

How wonderfully conditions change in a few years. Who would have believed, only a short time ago, that within a short time an American newspaper would be publishing very long wireless dispatches from Germany? Yet they are doing it today.

The Philadelphia Public Ledger daily receives such messages from its special correspondent, Col. Edward M. House, from Berlin. As evidence of this, and because we all want to know how they are behaving over there, we publish the following extracts from one such dispatch from Berlin received yesterday:

"Berlin is as clean and orderly as formerly, but there are few if any expensive motors to be seen. The head of the largest bank here has none of any kind and this is merely a typical, not an isolated, case. His residence, a very large and expensive one, is now shared with four other families, each having a separate kitchen and menage. This, too, is the rule, not an exception.

The theatres and restaurants are fairly well filled, but not with fashionable people. These latter have almost entirely disappeared and are on their country estates, where living conditions are cheaper. The profiteer is here as elsewhere and spending money freely. The Government finds it difficult to impose taxes on this class, for their wealth is elusive and largely out of reach. They are even more unpopular here than in other countries, and are the cause of much dissatisfaction.

"There is no evidence or display of jewelry in Berlin at all, comparable with New York, Paris and London, and hardly more than one finds in cities of the third class in the United States, France or Great Britain.

"On the surface one sees no evidence of feeling against America. Our interests in Germany have been admirably cared for by the American commissioner, Ellis Loring Dresel, and General Henry T. Allen. It would be hard to exaggerate the influence which these two men have had. By their good work under difficult conditions they have compelled the respect of Germans in all walks of life.

"Foreigners see us and know us as our representatives appear to them and we are fortunate in having two such men during these critical times."

FORMER RESIDENT OF THE PHILIPPINES DECLARES THEY ARE NOT FIT FOR INDEPENDENCE.

I spent three years in the Philippines, traveled through the numerous islands, lived exclusively with Filipinos, spoke a native dialect in addition to Spanish and had a real opportunity to come in close contact with Filipinos, both educated and otherwise. I like them personally, and although during the insurrection they behaved like savages, which they really are, they have under the efficient rule of the American constabulary and courts calmed down externally sufficiently to be considered even docile. The present agitation for independence is the work of a very small group of educated native Abogados and Caciques, who are natural-born orators and professional politicians. Unless checked by proper authority, they run the country to suit themselves.

There is hardly an American who ever lived in the island who does not realize that Filipino officials are the people's greatest enemy and a source of greatest danger, in the sense that, left to themselves, they neither have the ability nor the sincere desire to govern the country for the benefit of the poor.

Like all the countries under the Spanish misrule, they are infected by the revolution bug; and like all other Spanish-speaking opera bouffe republics, if left alone they will pay in blood-money and misery for the misgovernment which they hope to enjoy under their own officials.

In my opinion, the only real independence that they ever did enjoy or ever will enjoy was that which existed while they were governed by Americans sent by the Republican Administration.

BUSINESS EDUCATION OR COLLEGE EDUCATION, WHICH BEST?

Many have gone so far as to declare that a college education is a positive detriment to the accomplishment of success in business. If a young man sets success in business as the goal of his ambitions, it is essential for him to give careful consideration to the question as to whether or not the path to such success leads through the college. The stick-to-it-iveness and the energy necessary to carry a young man through to graduation are potent elements of business success. Possessing these qualities and a taste for business, would he not be better able to accomplish business success without a college education?

During four years of his youth, when his mind is most impressionable the formative years, as they have been called, he sits under the tuition and influence of highly educated, greatly devoted and sincere men who are financial incompetents, who entertain as little interest or understanding of business as the boy himself when he enters college.

The curriculum of the College of Hard Knocks contains a grueling course entitled "Making Money Make Money," and from it many have graduated with a six-figure mark. Nothing even distantly resembling such a course has ever come within the cognizance of the technical student. Whatever might have been his money-making capabilities on the day he entered college, they were likely to become atrophied through neglect, if not actually extinguished during his formative years.

CUT ABOUT AS SCANT AS THEY CAN GO ALREADY

1901--Twenty Years Ago--1921

The children of St. Brigid's school together with the music pupils will give an entertainment in the Opera House this evening, and it promises to be one of the best ever given in this city.

The graduating class of Central High School very handsomely remembered Miss Elwell who has taken so much pains in the great event of tomorrow surprised her this morning and presented her with a beautiful gold watch.

Harry Sparks has his headquarters at present with the Cleveland Construction Company in the Arcade, in Springfield.

Speaking of the boom Xenia is now enjoying, one of our business men said this morning that his business was never better than it has been since the first of the year. When the traction lines were first built to Dayton, the people went to that city for bargains, but finally decided that bargains could be obtained here at home. With a traction line to Wilmington which now seems assured, and with the present prosperous condition, things look bright for Xenia merchants.

AN EDITORIAL ON ADVERTISING

Advertising of a worthy product lowers cost because it intensifies action. The biggest expense cost of any merchant or any manufacturer is overhead cost. The fixed expenses like rent, clerk hire, bookkeeping expense, machinery costs, etc., he must pay no matter what he sells.

When through advertising he doubles and trebles his sales this overhead expense increases very little so his profits increase greatly. Thus he can decrease prices.

A manufacturer who sells 500,000 washing machines a year can afford to give bigger value for the customer's money than the manufacturer who sells 10,000 a year. This is a fact. The greater production the less the cost of production.

So when a manufacturer through advertising increases his production he either lowers the cost of his article he sells or puts more value into that article. This benefits the merchant and benefits the consumer.

The benefits of advertising increase in a cycle. First, advertising at a surprisingly low cost increases the sale of the merchandise. This increased sale makes possible an increased value of the merchandise—or a decrease in price. This increase in value for the same money, or the same value for less money in turn stimulates more purchases which again increases value or decreases prices and so on and so on.

To illustrate how advertising lowers cost to the consumer, we may take the example of a well known motor car. The advertising cost per sale is $50 per car.

But without the great sales which advertising built for this company—the cost of making and selling this car would be at least $200 more. So advertising in this instance has saved the consumer $150. It has saved the consumer really more, because the manufacturer will make more total money by selling many cars each one at a small percentage of profit than few at a great percentage of profit.

What is true of motor cars, is true of clothes, of food products, of everything we buy and use every day.

The most economical clothes the most economical food, the best values are invariably the well advertised brands.

And the best merchandise, the greatest value for each dollar you invest is found at the store of the merchants who enjoy the greatest patronage, because of the confidence they have built up through truthfully advertising well advertised brands.

We have said advertising intensifies action. When you think of it this means the greatest possible protection for the consumer.

For no advertiser can afford to invest money in advertising an article that is not worthy. He might sell this product at first through advertising, but there could be no repeat orders and instead of building up confidence he would be sowing the seeds of discontent.

So to-day the manufacturer or merchant who succeeds in advertising first of all must advertise a product in which he has absolute faith. No advertiser has succeeded over any length of time unless he stood squarely behind the products he sold.

Such advertisers have made their reputation through the integrity of their product and the truthfulness of their advertising about that product.

Your confidence in advertised goods and institutions is justified, because of these facts:

It does not pay to advertise inferior products.

It does pay to advertise worthy products.

Read the papers and read the advertising. You can believe in it and right in your own home sitting in your easy chair, you can pick out the things you want at the prices you want to pay.

It pays to read advertising because it saves you shopping around.

Advertising—newspaper advertising is a Direction—a Protection—and a saving to the buyer. Read it.

GETTING ALONG GOOD

Women are as great sufferers from kidney and bladder ailments as men. Foley Kidney Pills help rid the blood stream of impurities that cause rheumatic pains, backache, swollen joints and stiff, painful muscles. Mrs. Carey, Box 81, R. F. D. No. 2, Middletown, N. Y., writes: "I had kidney trouble ever since I was a little girl but I am getting along good since I have taken Foley Kidney Pills." They act immediately and help restore the kidneys to healthful activity. Says Dr. & Hemphill.

WILBERFORCE HOLDS 58 COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM THURSDAY

The 58th annual commencement of Wilberforce University was held Thursday morning, at Galloway Hall, the exercises opening at 10:30 in the morning, 200 graduates taking part in the ceremonies.

The exercises opened with a procession of the students, the line of march forming at Carnegie Library, accompanied by a band, and led by President John A. Gregg, of the University, and Dr. E. H. Lindsey, hancellor of the University of Kansas, and the bishops and general officers of the various departments of the University.

Upon the assembling of the graduates in Galloway Hall, the regular devotional exercises were held, followed by music from a sextette from "Lucia Di Lammermore." The sextette was composed of Miss J. E. Adams, E. R. Lockett, Miss Marjorie Seales, L. F. Crosby, G. T. Simpson and J. W. Arnold. The reading of the ritual by President Gregg, the next number on the program, was followed by the address to the pupils and graduates by Dr. Dr. Lindley.

Following Dr. Lindley's address the presentation of diplomas and certificates and the conferring of degrees upon honorary members took place.

President King, of Liberia, Africa the only negro in the L. L. D. degree was honored with the L. L. D. degree, at the exercises Thursday. President King in this country negotiation with the United States government for a loan for his country.

The following honorary degrees were conferred: L. L. D. Chancellor Lindley of the University of Kansas; Dr. Frank W. Johnson, of Cincinnati, president of the C. N. and I. board.

M. A. degree, A. A. Malone, of St. Louis, general manager of the Poro Company of that city and Sherman Hinicutt, principal of the high school of Centralia Illinois.

In the afternoon at 2 o'clock an exhibit of the C. N. and I. Department was held in the various trade buildings. At two thirty, the colored doctors of Ohio convened at the hall for the purpose of organizing an association and electing delegates to the National convention to be held in Louisville, Ky., in August. Doctors were present at the convention Thursday from Cincinnati, Columbus, Cleveland, Toledo, Dayton, Zanesville and Youngstown. The session was in charge of Dr. B. A. Rose of Dayton.

Practical Business Talks

WE ARE NOT ISOLATED.

It was only a short time ago that the average American knew little of geography beyond his own bailiwick.

He was more interested in a cat fight on his back fence, than in the price of wheat in Liverpool or the latest developments in Belgium or Argentina.

The Great War not only broadened the vision of the average citizen, but made him realize that no country can remain isolated. What happens in Europe or South America today may effect a man's pay envelope tomorrow.

If German factories can manufacture steel cheaper than we can, thousands of steel workers in the United States almost immediately face a loss in the revenue from their occupation.

The United States can consume only a part of the various products it manufactures. The surplus must be sold abroad or else our factories will be idle a large part of the time.

Foreign trade, foreign affairs in general, are of vital interest and concern to every American citizen. They are now reading the foreign dispatches in their newspapers with enhanced interest and studying foreign affairs with deeper realization of their influence on their own prosperity.

THE QUIET ONES.

Some people quietly proceed, and take no part in fuss or broil; they do their stunts with grace and speed, and make no racket as they toil. Retiring gents they are not sharks for any pomp or circumstance; they do not rise to make remarks whenever they see half a chance. They do not ask us for our votes and argue in the busy marts; and if perchance they lose their goats they bear their sorrow in their hearts. And in this world of endless noise, where human flivvers rant and roar, we learn to love the quiet boys who smoothly do the useful chore. They jog along their even groove, and draw good pay and earn it all; and read chaste volumes to improve their minds when evening shadows fall. They'll be on time, as sure as fate, on time for work when morning comes; they'll have no stories to relate of high adventures in the slums. All through the years they work, serene, these quiet, self-effacing lads; and this old world is worse, I ween, when they are gathered to their dads. Oh, these be times of blatant sound, of strident boast and loud harangue; the men who make the wheels go round are not the fizz-and-fireworks gang.

PONS-WINNECKE COMET WILL BE VISIBLE ABOUT THE END OF JUNE

Denver.—The Pons-Winnecke comet, an itinerant of the sky that is supposed to be present in the heavens about once every six years is flitting around the Milky way and may be seen by the naked eye during the latter part of June according to Dean Herbert A. Howe, professor of astronomy at Denver University.

With the aid of a twenty-eight-inch telescope, Dean Howe already has observed a "white light against the sky" that he believes is Pons-Winnecke.

The comet appears as a very faint, hazy spot on the sky, and stars may be easily seen through it," Dean Howe said, "in the large telescope a condensed nucleus of the eleventh magnitude almost stellar in appearance, is readily seen, and the nebulousity about it extends chiefly in one direction from the nucleus, as if it were trying to develop a tail. At present it is doubling its brightness every fortnight.

Hailed as Mystery Comet Dean Howe described the position of Pons-Winnecke as near the star Iota Herculis. He said the comet is moving a degree a day eastward and drifting a little northward. It will, however, change its northerly course in a few days, and will then go south as well as east, he said. Astronomers at Denver University are nightly watching the progress of Pons-Winnecke across the heavens.

There is considerable mystery about the comet. The dimensions of its orbit are extremely vague and astronomers at various observatories throughout the United States have been asked to keep a watch this year in an effort to secure more definite measurements on the "fly-by night."

When Pons-Winnecke reaches its perihelion, late in June, it is expected a great shower of meteors will fall.

While it is possible that the comet may not be visible to the naked eye, Dean Howe says that small telescopes will bring it into view.

Styles
BY LENORE

Veiled in a cloud of filmy tulle, a recent bride, the daughter of a famous designer in Paris demonstrated the everlasting charm of simlicity in a wedding gown fashioned of white satin, made misty with an overdraping of fine net, open at the side.

Suitable for an elaborate church ceremony or the quiet wedding at home is this charming gown with its demure bodice and girle of orange blossoms. A crown of orange blossoms catches the veil, and little clusters of the flowers, are scattered over the rippling train.

As shown adapted in the sketch, this model may be copied within a modest budget.

PATTERN NO. 185.

A pattern for the above model (No. 185) can be obtained in sizes 34, 36, 38 or 40, by sending to Lenore, 8 West 40th Street, New York City, your name, address, the number of this pattern and the size required and 25 cents in postage stamps. Be sure to keep this newspaper clipping of the sketch and description of the garment to use as a working model when the pattern reaches you—which will be within two weeks' time. The Editor.

SAY HARVEST HELP IS ABUNDANT IN
U. S. WHEAT BELT

Advices received by the department of Agriculture from its agents in the field indicate that there will be no general shortage of labor, for the wheat harvest, and that in some areas there will be a decided surplus.

In Kansas, where the harvest begins about June 15 in the southern tier of counties, the supply of labor is already in excess of the demand. In that State wages for shockers do not run over $2 a day with board and lodging.

In Texas, where harvest is already in progress, there seems to be labor enough to meet all demands, with the possible exception of the "Panhandle" district. In Texas harvest wages run from $2 to $2.50 a day.

In the northern wheat States the situation has not yet developed sufficiently to make possible reliable estimates as to demands for outside labor, but it seems probable that the labor market will be comparatively easy in most localities, with the prevailing wage not over $3 a day.

SUGAR SELLS AT FOUR CENTS

New York, June 15.—The lowest level recorded in the local sugar market in five years was reported with the sale of 24,500 bags of centrifugal at 4 cents. Renewed pressure on Porto Rican sugar brought about the decline brought about the decline.

WOMEN WHO CANNOT WORK

Read Mrs. Corley's Letter and Benefit by Her Experience

Edmund, S. C.—"I was run down with nervousness and female trouble and suffered every month. I was not able to do any work and tried a lot of medicine, but got no relief. I saw your medicine advertised in a little book that was thrown in my door, and I had not taken two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before I could see it was helping me. I am keeping house now and am able to do all of my work. I cannot say enough for your medicine. It has done more for me than any doctor. I have not paper enough to tell you how much it has done for me and for my friends. You may print this letter if you wish."

—ELIZABETH C. CORLEY, care of A. P. Corley, Edmund, S. C. Ability to stand the strain of work is the privilege of the strong and healthy, but how our hearts ache for the weak and sickly women struggling with their daily rounds of household duties, with backaches, headaches, nervousness and almost every movement brings a new pain. Why will not the mass of letters from women all over this country, which we have been publishing, convince such women that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help them just as surely as it did Mrs. Corley?

SAYS HIS PRESCRIPTION HAS POWERFUL INFLUENCE OVER RHEUMATISM

Mr. James H. Allen who suffered for many years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work. He finally decided after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body. With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system. He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Sayre & Hemphill have been appointed agents for Allen in this vicinity with the turn the purchase money to all who state they received no benefit.

WILL DRILL FOR GAS IN HIGHLAND COUNTY

The Greenfield Oil and Gas Company, organized in 1915, but which failed to function on account of the war, has leased a large tract of land on Rattlesnake creek centering at Carr Ford, in Highland county, and expects to start the first well in a short time. Thomas A. Cope, John W. Case and Burton Hull are officers of the company.

It is claimed that gas issues through vents in the earth near Carr Ford and that the escaping gas causes the water to bubble at various points in Rattlesnake creek with the result that this has been taken as good evidence of the existence of gas in large quantities deep below the surface.

EXTERMINATING THE MOSQUITO

Petroleum oil should be used temporarily and not as a valid or permanent means of mosquito destruction. Drainage and filling up the wet places solid are the sure way. Oil destroys the larvae by plugging up their breathing apparatus. One ounce of oil will cover 15 square feet of water surface and will remain effective ten days. The wind may blow this oil aside, to return generally when the wind changes; and though eggs may have been deposited in the meantime, the returning oil will suffocate the new larvae. An ordinary garden sprinkler may be used, or a knapsack sprayer from which oil may be projected several yards from shore or from a boat. Gold fish, sticklebacks, minnows, sunfish, which will find the larvae delicious tidbits, are well enough for fountains; but the mosquito problem is not adequately solved that way, nor by means of insectivorous bats, birds or water fowl.

The community which wants to be mosquito-free which does not desire the unenviable and commercially injurious reputation of maintaining a malaria granary, must take community action. How often has one negligent householder nullified the perspiring and admirable zeal of a whole neighborhood? If live mosquitoes are not wanted, there must be a live health officer who knows his business and whose arms the electorate will stand ready and determined to hold up. Such a board will distribute throughout its sphere of activity descriptive circulars; will corral the press, the clergy, the schools, the ladies' societies, the board of trade. And the health officer has to inspect everybody's premises and backyard (in which latter most of the hatching goes on.)

If any citizen doubts the possibility of mosquito extermination, even in his own community, let him remember that the late General Gorham and his associates turned the most pestilential spot on the footstool—har none—into one of the healthiest (except for heat) on the footstool as free today of mosquitoes, of malaria and yellow fever, as the equator is of icebergs. There are now people who, come winter, prefer Panama for a health resort to Palm Beach.

The road from Martinsville to Blanche received a similar surface treatment before the apparatus was moved to the Xenia pike.

AN ADVERTISEMENT HELPED HER

Mrs. Lucille Mackey, 16 Buena Vista St., Washington, Pa., writes: "Last winter my 3-year-old girl caught a bad cold which left her with a dry cough. It bothered her most at night and she would cough until she vomited. I think she must have had whooping cough. I saw an advertisement for Foley's Honey and Tar. I tried it and bought two bottles and her cough left her before she finished the second bottle. She had gotten awfully thin but now she is as fat as ever." Sayre & Hemphill.

The Revolt of Vera Sanderson

By JANE PHELPS.

A BABY NAMED JUNE
Chapter 69

We returned to town in about a week. Keith, as I knew he would, had told Margaret my precious secret. Only once she alluded to it.

"Don't act as if you were the only girl who ever had a baby, Vera. Men like Keith hate a woman to fuss over such things."

Of course I did not know just what Keith had said to her, but I made up my mind I would not mention it to him again—not if I died. I know now that I often blamed my husband when he did not deserve it—because I disliked Margaret so, all she said took on a different meaning than if it had been said by another.

"Shall we go to housekeeping this fall, Keith?" I asked one day shortly after we returned to town.

"No. Why do you ask that?"

Why I thought now that what I will have baby you would want a home of your own," I finished desperately.

"I don't see the need for any change. Recalling what Margaret had said about men like Keith hating a woman to fuss over such things, I said no more. But the first time thoughts of what was coming brought me no joy.

But I forgot all my unhappiness in the long months before my baby came, when they laid her in my arms. My baby was a girl. I had my wish. The tiny form up close to me.

The months before her birth had been hard ones for me—constant fault-finding by Margaret, spying always into what I bought, the money I spent for pretty things, lace and materials, tale—bearing to Keith, and hardest of all the making fun of me. She did this before others as well. To Mrs. De Lisle she said:

"Of course Vera knows it all now no one can tell her anything. You'd think she was dressing a doll. People nowadays don't fuss up a child in lace."

"No, they are more sensible. But I remember when Irene was born you made a lot of fuss over her."

I could have hugged Mrs. De Lisle, much as I feared her. Since I had been unable to go out, Margaret had included her in nearly every outing she and Keith took. Had it not been for Gloria and Irene, I would have been terribly depressed and lonely. But they were so pleased that they were to have a little cousin that I found much of the sympathy and love I craved.

I called my little girl "June." Margaret laughed at me for choosing such a name, but Keith told her it was a mother's right to name the girls.

"If ever we have a son, I shall name him," he added.

I never could understand Margaret's reason, but I sometimes wondered if she would have liked the baby named for her even though she disliked me, the mother. She used to sneer openly at the name I had chosen.

Once I said to Keith—it was when June was about two months old and cunning—"Why does Margaret seem to dislike baby's name so intensely? Everyone else seems to think it such a pretty name."

"She was disappointed that her only brother's child was not named for her. I was going to insist upon it, but I saw how your heart was fixed upon June, which is a very pretty name, so I said nothing."

I felt like saying: "Thank God!" but I made no reply. I could not have called her Margaret.

It does not seem possible that loving her as I did, anything could have taken away my joy in my baby, but it was so. Not that I loved her less but I had so little to say about her. Margaret interfered in everything I did or wished to do, from clothing to the baths and outings. She gave orders to the nurse, orders opposed to those I had given.

"It is my house," I heard her say when the nurse demurred at some-

"You will do as I say or leave. The nurse left and Margaret hired a sour-faced old woman who treated me as if I was an absolute idiot and who went to Margaret for orders about the simplest thing.

"Oh Erma! If only I could have a home of my own!" I wailed one day when she came to see me. "Just a little place where I could have my baby and Keith to myself."

"Perhaps you will some day," as usual she tried to comfort me.

"No, I never shall. Not as long as Margaret lives. I thought perhaps she might get married, but I am discouraged about that. Keith is just like having a husband about taking her out, paying the bills and everything. She doesn't need to get married."

"But Keith is her brother. She might love someone and want to marry because of that love."

"She isn't capable of loving anyone but Keith!" I really believed Margaret cared more for him than for her children, or parents.

FALL FESTIVAL IS SET FOR AUGUST 29 TO SEPTEMBER 3

The 1921 Fall Festival will be held the week of August 29 to September 3.

The contract between the Retail Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the Festival Production Company of Chillicothe has been assigned, assuring that the Festival will be held.

Secretary F. J. Slackford, of the Chamber of Commerce, is now busy selecting the many committees that will be necessary to carry on the Festival, and these committees will get their instructions from the office of the Production Company in Chillicothe right away.

The purpose of the Festival is an outdoor exposition of industrial, agricultural, educational and mercantile life in the city and county. It will be in the nature of a Mardi Gras, with numerous free attractions, and crowd-drawing features that are expected to make the Festival the best of any of these similar events held in former years, or even better.

The only expense to local merchants will be the rent of the booths and space which they take for the exhibition of their wares. Many merchants have not yet been solicited, and they can secure full particulars at the Chamber of Commerce, if they desire.
